1 REVIEW:

2
3 The Old Testament can be divided as follows:

4 • The Torah or Pentateuch:

5 1. Genesis

6 2. Exodus

7 3. Leviticus

8 4. Numbers

9 5. Deuteronomy

10 • The Historical Books

11 1. Joshua

12 2. Judges

13 3. Ruth

14 4. I and II Samuel

15 5. I and II Kings

16 6. I and II Chronicles

17 7. Ezra

18 8. Nehemiah

19 9. Esther

20 • The Poetic Books

21 1. Job

22 2. Psalms

23 3. Proverbs

24 4. Ecclesiastes

25 5. Song of Solomon

26 • Major Prophets

27 1. Isaiah

28 2. Jeremiah

29 3. Lamentations

30 4. Ezekiel

31 5. Daniel

32 • Minor Prophets

33 1. Hosea

34 2. Joel

35 3. Amos

36 4. Obadiah

5. Jonah

6. Micah

7. Nahum

8. Habbakkuk

9. Zephaniah

10. Haggai

11. Zechariah

12. Malachi

1 Between the Old and New Testaments, about 400 years of secular history pass - the
2 Babylonians, the Persians, the Greeks, the Maccabees and the Romans. Then....Galatians
3 4:4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a
4 woman, made under the law... and we are ushered into the New Testament via the 5 Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

6
7 OUR MEMORIZATION TO THIS POINT:

8 Genesis ... Exodus .... Leviticus .... Numbers .... Deuteronomy .... Joshua .... Judges .... Ruth
9 ...I and II Samuel

10
11 We ended last week's study with II Samuel. David is now king over all the tribes of Israel
12 and the Golden Age of Old Testament Israel has begun. Now we come to I and II Kings, 13 the continuing study....

14
15 Here is a vital "carry-over" lesson from II Samuel:

16
17 1. David's sin with Bathsheba and the resulting murder of her husband Uriah cost
18 Israel and David greatly.

19
20 2 Samuel 12:1-14 (New Living Testament)

21 So the Lord sent Nathan the prophet to tell David this story: "There were two men
22 in a certain town. One was rich, and one was poor. [2] The rich man owned many 23 sheep and cattle. [3] The poor man owned nothing but a little lamb he had worked 24 hard to buy. He raised that little lamb, and it grew up with his children. It ate from 25 the man's own plate and drank from his cup. He cuddled it in his arms like a baby 26 daughter. [4] One day a guest arrived at the home of the rich man. But instead of 27 killing a lamb from his own flocks for food, he took the poor man's lamb and killed it 28 and served it to his guest."

29 [5] David was furious. "As surely as the Lord lives," he vowed, "any man who 30 would do such a thing deserves to die! [6] He must repay four lambs to the poor man 31 for the one he stole and for having no pity."

32 [7] Then Nathan said to David, "You are that man! The Lord, the God of Israel, 33 says, 'I anointed you king of Israel and saved you from the power of Saul. [8] I gave 34 you his house and his wives and the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. And if that had not 35 been enough, I would have given you much, much more. [9] Why, then, have you
36 despised the word of the Lord and done this horrible deed? For you have murdered
37 Uriah and stolen his wife. [10] From this time on, the sword will be a constant threat
38 to your family, because you have despised me by taking Uriah's wife to be your own.

39 [11] " 'Because of what you have done, I, the Lord, will cause your own household
40 to rebel against you. I will give your wives to another man, and he will go to bed with

1 them in public view. [12] You did it secretly, but I will do this to you openly in the 2 sight of all Israel.' "

3 [13] Then David confessed to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord."

4 Nathan replied, "Yes, but the Lord has forgiven you, and you won't die for this sin.
5 [14] But you have given the enemies of the Lord great opportunity to despise and 6 blaspheme him, so your child will die."

7
8 David paid dearly for his offenses:

9 1) The baby in Bathsheba's womb died

10 2) David's family was a wild group....

11 — Amnon, David's oldest son by Ahinoam, raped his half sister Tamar (2 Sam 3)

12 — Absalom, (David's third son by his wife Maacah and Tamar's brother,
13 ambushed Amnon and killed him

14 — David punished Absalom by banishing him to a northern kingdom and then 15 brought him back to Jerusalem; but Absalom, now nourishing hate in his heart launched a 16 rebellion against his father's rule

17 — Absalom was killed by David's General Joab while attempting to escape

18 19 THE CONTINUING STORY OF KING DAVID, HIS DEATH AND SOLOMON'S 20 REIGN IN I KINGS

21
22 I and II Kings follows immediately the history of Israel recorded in I and II Samuel.
23 Together these four books selectively cover the entire history of the kings of Israel and 24 Judah.

25
26 We are going to learn in I Kings, beginning with chapter 12, that upon the death of King
27 Solomon Israel is divided into two separate nations. The issue will be excessive taxation.

28
29 These four books cover about four centuries of Israeli history, from the time of King
30 Solomon (970 B.C.) to the capture of Judah by Babylon and the resulting exile of the nation
31 from The Land (586 B.C.).

32
33 We do not know who authored I and II Kings. Some believe the writers were prophets.
34 But the Holy Spirit inspired them so that following generations of Jews would know why
35 their nation ruptured in two and why both Israel and Judah collapsed.

36
37 Part one of I Kings deals with the reign of King Solomon; Part two tells of the split in the 38 kingdom under Solomon's son Rehoboam (a real loser!). The main characters are kings
39 Rehoboam in the southern kingdom of Judah and Jeroboam in the northern. The great 40 prophet ELIJAH makes his entre here along with wicked King Ahab and Queen Jezebel.

1 THE FIRST GREAT TEMPLE - BUILT BY KING SOLOMON

2
3 King David had wanted to construct it; however, God told him his hands were too bloody
4 to do so. David financed most of the construction of the Temple, but it was Solomon who 5 built it.
6

A few months ago, via email I went round and round with the editor of Huffington Post - in my opinion a really jaded and anti-Christian "news service." The editor claimed to me that Solomon never existed! Further....that Israel was never anything more than a tiny outpost in the Middle East. Well, history, archeology and scripture prove the editor wrong.

7 Here are the facts on Solomon's Temple:

8
9 Since the days of Moses (Exodus 24-40), the worship center of the Israelites was the 10 Tabernacle (in the Wilderness). This was a portable structure. 450 years later, King
11 David wanted to build a permanent center for worship to God.

The economic impact of this structure to Israel (and surrounding nations) must have been great. 120,000 workers were employed, of which 90,000 apprentices labored in the quarries and 30,000 fitted the stones for the builders' use, presented their work for inspection of the overseers, and Master Overseers took care that the organization in the building ground went smoothly. Architects designed in accordance with materials gathered and religious requirements. In addition, transport workers and freight experts, bakers, butchers, caterers, school teachers for workers' families and many more were needed to make the project a success. In addition we read in 2 Chronicles 2 and 2 Samuel 5 and 11 that Solomon called for assistance from his neighbor to the north, King Hiram of Tyre (now Lebanon) in asking for workers and support.

While there had been earlier and larger man-made structures, the Temple was the first one to be erected for God's glory, not man's (as some Pharaoh or ruler). The Temple would exist for hundreds of years until the Babylonians (under King Nebuchadnezzar) destroyed it during their third and final attack on Jerusalem in 586 B.C. When the Jews returned from exile some 60-70 years later, they built a very inferior structure which was used for their Temple until King Herod built the massive one that Jesus knew so well (500 years later).

13 KING SOLOMON'S WISDOM AND FOLLY

14 Early in his reign, Solomon asked God for wisdom: 1 Kings 4:29-34
15

1       And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of 2 heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore. [30] And Solomon's wisdom excelled the 3 wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. [31] For he
4 was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda,
5 the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about. [32] And he spake three
6 thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five. [33] And he spake of trees,
7 from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the 8 wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes. [34] And 9 there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth,
10 which had heard of his wisdom.

11
12 But unfortunately, Solomon had a weakness - as we all do. Our weaknesses are not the same 13 which is why Jesus prohibited our judging each other. Solomon's weakness was his love of 14 women. 1 Kings 11:1-4 But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with 15 the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and 16 Hittites; [2] Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel,
17 Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn
18 away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. [3] And he had seven 19 hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his 20 heart. [4] For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his 21 heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the 22 heart of David his father.

23 24                   REHOBAM AND JEROBOAM AND THE DIVISION OF ISRAEL

25
26 Rehobam was the son of Solomon and the heir apparent to the throne. Jeroboam was a
27 fighting man in the military and a man of great valor. Solomon was afraid that Jeroboam
28 might have the clout with the people to deny Rehobam the throne; so Jeroboam left Israel
29 and went north until Solomon died.

30
31 In I Kings 12 we read of the stupidity and vanity of Rehobam. Solomon had taxed his 32 people beyond bearing and they requested of Rehobam that he lower taxes and ease their 33 burden. But instead of listening to wise counsel from people with experience, Rehobam
34 listened to his young buddies and issued this absolutely ridiculous official statement:

35
36 1 Kings 12:11

37 [11] And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your 38 yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

39
40 At this point the ten northern tribes pulled out of Rehobam's rule and formed the northern

1 kingdom of Israel. They made Jeroboam their ruler with Samaria (current-day Sebaste) as 2 their capital. The two smaller tribes of Benjamin and Judah became known as Judah with 3 their capital remaining in Jerusalem. Israel, the northern Kingdom, never had a good king.
4 All nineteen were bad, some of them such as Ahab were downright despicable. The 5 nation was defeated by the Assyrians in 721 B.C. Judah, on the other hand, had 20 kings,
6 a half-dozen or so of them excellent such as Asa, Jehoshaphat, his son (the two of them
7 ruled for 66 years total), Joash, Amaziah, Uzziah (also known as Azariah who ruled for 52
8 years), Jotham and Josiah.)

10 THE PROPHETS

11
12 Both nations continued a basic downward trajectory despite the pleadings of prophets such 13 as: Joel, Isaiah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah and Jeremiah – they ministered in 14 Judah. In Israel, the people were instructed by such prophets as Elijah and Elisha, Jonah, 15 Amos and Hosea.

16
17 The major and minor prophets we read in the Old Testament were lived and written by 18 these people during the time of the Historical Books.

19 AHAB AND JEZEBEL

20
21 King and queen, husband and wife, co-conspirators in things unholy. 1 Kings 16:29-33

22 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to 23 reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and 24 two years. [30] And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that
25 were before him. [31] And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk
26 in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of 27 Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. [32] And 28 he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. [33]
29 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger
30 than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

31
33 The prophet Elijah was the nemesis of Ahab. Ahab was killed while in a battle against 34 Syria. Jezebel was killed when she was thrown out of her palace tower to her death.

35 II KINGS

38 This book is obviously the continuation of the story of the two nations: Israel (north) and 39 Judah. The story is sad because it is the narrative of the continuing disintegration of these 40 two countries and their continual falling away from God

1 Here we will read of the destruction of Samaria (capital of Israel) by the Assyrians and the
2 horrendous end of Judah and Jerusalem at the hands of the Babylonians. II Kings covers
3 the last 130 years of Judah's 345 year history.

4
5 Please note: Israel had an unbroken string of horrible leaders, ungodly choices and a
6 downfall into idolatry and ruin. Judah, on the other hand, at times had godly leadership.
7 But even those few kings could not permanently altar the downward slide of Judah into 8 destruction, captivity and desolation.

9
10 This book has some wonderful stories in it: Elijah taken into Heaven in a chariot of fire
11 and the ministry of Elisha; the healing of Syrian Captain Naaman from leprosy; the death of 12 Jezebel (chapter 9); the healing of King Hezekiah and the destruction of Jerusalem (chapter 13 25).

ON THE FINAL PAGE OF THESE NOTES, YOU WILL FIND AN OUTSTANDING
CHART, SHOWING THE KINGS AND PROPHETS OF BOTH THE NATIONS -
JUDAH AND ISRAEL. I HAVE THIS PASTED IN ONE OF MY BIBLES. IT COMES FROM THE FABULOUS FIVE-SET OF BOOKS, THRU THE BIBLE BY J.
VERNON MCGEE AND IS FOUND IN VOLUME 2 ON PAGE 432.

14
15 THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM BY THE BABYLONIANS 586 B.C.

16
17 2 Kings 25:1-7

18 Then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon mobilized his entire army and laid siege to 19 Jerusalem, arriving on March 25 of the ninth year of the reign of King Zedekiah of 20 Judah. [2] The siege continued into the eleventh year of his reign.

21 [3] The last food in the city was eaten on July 24, [4] and that night the king and his 22 troops made a hole in the inner wall and fled out toward the Arabah (the Jordan valley)
23 through a gate that lay between the double walls near the king's garden. [5] The 24 Babylonian troops surrounding the city took out after him and captured him in the plains
25 of Jericho, and all his men scattered. [6] He was taken to Riblah (a city on Israel's northern 26 frontier), where he was tried and sentenced before the king of Babylon. [7] He was forced 27 to watch as his sons were killed before his eyes; then his eyes were put out, and he was 28 bound with chains and taken away to Babylon.

29
30 By the time Jerusalem was sacked by the Babylonians, the northern kingdom of Israel had 31 long since been destroyed by the Assyrians ((135 years earlier). In Judah, Jeremiah did 32 everything he could to warn the people that the same fate awaited them - this time at the 33 hands of Babylon - if they didn't forsake their idolatry and turn back to God.

1 “Jeremiah became the most unpopular man in Jerusalem. The priests derided him, the 2 patriots denounced him, the mobs reviled him. He was publicly struck by a temple priest
3 and placed in the stocks to be taunted by the passing guards. When the king renounced
4 the authority of Babylon and prepared for war, Jeremiah announced that Jerusalem would 5 be conquered and the people taken away in captivity. The king became furious and 6 accused him of mortal crime. But he was rescued by a friend and placed in hiding.

7
8 “When Jeremiah was released, he wrote out the sermons and sent them to the king. But the 9 king cut the sermons in pieces and threw them into the fire. Soon after, Nebuchadnezzar
10 came with a large army and King Jehoiachin surrendered the city. Nebuchadnezzar deported 11 the king, the queen-mother, the soldiers and some ten thousand leading men with their 12 wives and children to Babylon.

13
14 “Jerusalem was left in the hands of Zedekiah who was soon influenced by the patriots to 15 believe they could yet throw off Babylonian control. Jeremiah walked through the streets
16 with a yoke on his shoulders to illustrate what must happen to Judah. The yoke was torn 17 from him and he was spat upon.

18
19 “Impatient at the Hebrew spirit of defiance, Nebuchadnezzar led his army back to 20 Jerusalem and began to slowly starve the people into submission. The sufferings of the 21 besieged, prolonged for more than a year and a half, were dreadful. The people perished
22 so rapidly that it was impossible for the survivors to properly bury them. Corpses decayed 23 in streets and in cellars, pestilence engendered by the poison stench of the city and by the 24 lack of sanitary measures, added further horrors to the siege.

25
26 The king’s sons were killed before his eyes and then Zedekiah’s eyes were blinded.

27 “Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took possession of the gold, silver and brass vessels in 28 the temple, burned the temple and all the principal buildings of Jerusalem and sent many of 29 the massive blocks of stone to the bottom of the Kidron Valley (where many remain to this 30 day.)

31 ABRAHAM TO THE MIDDLE EAST CRISIS / G. FREDERICK OWEN / EERDMAN PUBL. / PP 85-7)

32
33 One of the most haunting portions of scripture is the first chapter of Lamentations, written 34 by Jeremiah. From his cave (today known as Calvary), the old prophet watched the city be 35 destroyed and wrote:

36 Lament. 1:1-6

37 Jerusalem's streets, once thronged with people, are silent now. Like a widow
38 broken with grief, she sits alone in her mourning. She, once queen of nations, is now a 39 slave.

40 [2] She sobs through the night; tears run down her cheeks. Among all her lovers,

1 there is none to help her. All her friends are now her enemies.

2 [3] Why is Judah led away, a slave? Because of all the wrong she did to others,
3 making them her slaves. Now she sits in exile far away. There is no rest, for those she 4 persecuted have turned and conquered her.

5 [4] The roads to Zion mourn, no longer filled with joyous throngs who come to 6 celebrate the Temple feasts; the city gates are silent, her priests groan, her virgins
7 have been dragged away. Bitterly she weeps.

8 [5] Her enemies prosper, for the Lord has punished Jerusalem for all her many 9 sins; her young children are captured and taken far away as slaves.

10 [6] All her beauty and her majesty are gone; her princes are like starving deer that 11 search for pasture--helpless game too weak to keep on running from their foes.

14 I AND II CHRONICLES

15
16 These two books, largely written by Ezra, we believe, were written for the Jews who had 17 returned from exile in Babylon

18
19 These books cover much of the same information as we have found earlier in the historical 20 books; however its genealogi

23 EZRA

24
25 Ezra, as we have already noted, was a priest and leader among the Jews. It is possible he is 26 the one who compiled the books of the Old Testament, written at that time. We believe he 27 wrote the books of the Chronicles.

28
29 In this rather small book we learn how God fulfilled His prophetic promise to restore the 30 Jewish people after 70 years in exile. The people were marvelously allowed to return to 31 "the Land."

32
33 The collapse of Babylon (and the Empire of Nebuchadnezzar) was sealed the night of 34 Belshazzar's feast (as recorded in Daniel 5 - the handwriting on the wall story). The 35 Medo-Persian Empire began its rule under a very beneficent ruler named Cyrus who 36 decreed that the Jews could return to Israel if they so wanted.

37
38 The first six chapters of Ezra tells of the early return of the Jewish exiles to Jerusalem
39 where they found nothing but mounds of ruins and debris. However, they dutifully set out 40 to rebuild the Temple. Chapters 7 - 10 tell of the second wave of returnees to the land and

1 the spiritual reformation that followed. Ezra, like Moses, lived to be 120.

3 NEHEMIAH

4
5 The previous book of Ezra had to do with rebuilding the Temple in Jerusalem. The book
6 of Nehemiah had to do with the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem. Both books 7 emphasized the importance of spiritual revival among the people and a full commitment to 8 God and His Word.

9
10 It is important to remember that the primary sin that caused the Babylonian exile was 11 idolatry on the part of Israel. They learned that lesson well and have never historically 12 returned to that which is such an abomination to the Lord.

13
14 Nehemiah, who lived at the same time as Ezra, was serving as a cupbearer to the Medo-
15 Persian Emperor Artaxerxes. Nehemiah, of course, was a Jew. He heard reports from 16 Judah that the exiles who had returned there were suffering and all was not well. After 17 weeping and fasting, the king authorized Nehemiah to organize group to go back to the 18 Holy City to assist in the re-development.

20 On quite a few occasions while walking south down the Kidron Valley (between the Mount
21 of Olives and the Eastern Wall of Jerusalem, I have seen ancient structures that we know
22 were constructed by Nehemiah and his crew 2500 years ago.

23 Enemies To The Progress in Jerusalem

24
25
26 Not everyone in the ruined city of Jerusalem wanted it restored:

27
28 Neh. 2:9-10

29 When I arrived in the provinces west of the Euphrates River, I delivered the king's 30 letters to the governors there. (The king, I should add, had sent along army officers and 31 troops to protect me!) [10] But when Sanballat (the Horonite) and Tobiah (an Ammonite 32 who was a government official) heard of my arrival, they were very angry that anyone
33 was interested in helping Israel.

34
35 Even then Jerusalem was at the epicenter of world focus. As goes Jerusalem, so goes the 36 world! But the enemies did not bother Nehemiah, nor would he waste time even talking 37 to them.

38
39 Neh. 2:19-20

40 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arab heard of our plan, they scoffed

1 and said, "What are you doing, rebelling against the king like this?"

2 [20] But I replied, "The God of heaven will help us, and we, his servants, will 3 rebuild this wall; but you may have no part in this affair."
4

5 Thank God for those brave Jews who through the centuries have drawn a line in the sand
6 and said to the enemies of Israel, "Back off! You have no business here!" I believe that 7 today Israel has such a hero. His name is Benjamin Netanyahu (or Bibi, as he is 8 affectionately known there). I have had the privilege of meeting once.
9

10 Nehemiah had a single purpose - and that was to rebuild the walls. When his enemies
11 proposed a "peace conference," this was his response:
12

13 Neh. 6:1-4

14 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies found out that 15 we had almost completed the rebuilding of the wall--though we had not yet hung all the 16 doors of the gates-- [2] they sent me a message asking me to meet them in one of the 17 villages in the Plain of Ono. But I realized they were plotting to kill me, [3] so I replied 18 by sending back this message to them:

19 "I am doing a great work! Why should I stop to come and visit with you?"

20 [4] Four times they sent the same message, and each time I gave the same reply.
21

22 The work was completed in record time and it gave the Jews a safe place to return and 23 continue the rebuilding of the city, the country and their society.
24

25 ESTHER

26
27 After the conquest of the Babylonian Empire, the world turned to Persia for its leadership.
28 The capital city was Susa, which is the center of our story found in Esther.
29 Chronologically, her story takes place between Ezra 6 and 7 – between the first return of 30 the exiles from Babylon and actually 30 years before Nehemiah returned to Jerusalem to 31 rebuild the walls.
32

33 Bottom line to this remarkable story, which Jews still celebrate today at the Feast of Purim,
34 the Jews of Persia were under attack from a Hitler-like person named Haman. Esther
35 (Jewish name, Hadassah) was the new queen of Persia. She was a Jew. When word 36 reached her that Haman planned a genocide of the Jews, she risked her life by going to the 37 King Ahaseurus, and informing him of the plot against her and her people. The result was 38 that Haman was hanged on his own gallows and the Jewish people were saved. This was 39 only one of the attempts throughout history to destroy Jews. That will never happen
40 because God has His hand upon them.

1 The Feast of Purim (Esther 9) is still observed. It is called Purim because Ham used the 2 word “pur” or “lot” to determine the day the Jews were to be exterminated. But God
3 overrode the best-laid plans of Israel’s enemies - and will do so again!
